Family Behavioral Resources provides services to individuals and families in Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Bedford, Blair, Butler, Cambria, Fayette, Greene, Indiana, Lancaster, Mercer, Somerset, Washington and Westmoreland Counties.

BHRS (“Wraparound”) is a Medicaid-funded program designed to provide services to children under 21 years of age that have a current mental health diagnosis. These services are designed to increase the level of psychosocial functioning and well-being, so less intensive services are needed.

FBR has outpatient clinics that provide Individual, Group and Family Therapy that addresses family issues, behavioral problems, depression, anxiety, anger management, stress management, grief and loss, abuse issues, and self esteem issues.

FBR also offers Specialized Autism Services, Adult Autism Services, Family-Based Mental Health Services, Summer Therapeutic Activities Programs, and extensive community outreach efforts.

If you are looking to change the lives of individuals and families on their journey towards recovery, we can find a place for those who qualify for a position.

caring is everything.
